EXHIBITOR RULES, REGULATIONS, & INSTRUCTIONS

1. All exhibit space and equipment ordered must be paid in full by dates specified on face of contract. If exhibitor fails to make any of said payments by proper time, or fails to fulfill contract in any way, all rights of the exhibitor shall be forfeited and all deposits and payments made on said contract shall be retained by Show Management as damages for breach of contract, and Show Management may recall and resell said space.
2. Exhibitors will report to the designated show office upon arrival at the hall for exhibitor working passes.
3. No nails or screws may be driven into floor or walls. No signs or items affixed to walls. No damage of any kind may be done to booth structures or any part of exhibit hall. Exhibitors will be held responsible for damages.
4. All isles must be kept clear of exhibits; and no interviews, demonstrations, distribution of literature, canvassing, petitions, solicitations of business or conferences in the interest of business, except by exhibiting firms and must be confined to booth area. All promotions other than at booth site, such as receptions, hospitality and other events that cater to show exhibitors or attendees, must be approved by Show Director in advance.
5. All structural work, such as extra shelving, standard display racks, etc. must meet the approval of the Show Director and/or the Director of Convention Center.
6. Subletting of space is prohibited. Two or more firms may not exhibit in a single booth space unless under special arrangement with Show Director in advance of show opening.
7. The decision of the Show Director must be accepted as final in any disagreement between exhibitors, and exhibitors must comply with any and all regulations of the Convention Center.
8. Show management reserves the right to change show dates and location with no advance notice to exhibitor.
9. Show management reserves the right to make booth location space changes with no advance notice to exhibitor.
10. Exhibitor must use qualified personnel to install and remove displays and display material. No exceptions will be allowed.
11. Ample supplies of furniture will be available for rental.
12. Electricity, gas, water, and steam shall be available upon proper application to the Convention Center. All arrangements for such services must be made directly to the Convention Center.
13. The building, including the demised premises, shall be at all times under the charge and control of the Director of the Convention Center. All decisions effecting same shall be final as made by the Director of the Convention Center.
14. Oil, gas, or gasoline engines may not be operated in the building. Gas tanks must be drained and batteries disconnected. All propane containers must be empty or removed.
15. No food, drink candy, vending machines, souvenirs, sundries, or other items may be allowed in exhibit areas except those for which proper space has been paid to the Show Management and approved by the Concession Service of the Convention Center. It is understood that such concession fees and/or percentages in addition to the space costs may be set by the Concession Service of the Convention Center. Each exhibitor shall be responsible for payment of any additional fees as established by the said concession service.
16. Freight and express shipments of exhibit materials must be handled by such drayage and shipping firms as authorized by the show management. Information regarding the shipping of materials and freight are available from the Show Director. All shipping services must be prepaid.
17. Any property brought upon the premises by an exhibitor shall be at the sole risk of the exhibitor and shall be removed from the premises at the expiration of the terms of this agreement. The show Director and/or the management of the Convention Center shall have the right to remove from the building all remaining property left after the date and/or specified time for move-out and to store same at exhibitor's cost and risk.
18. The exhibitor shall conform to all statutes, ordinances, rules, orders, regulations and directions issued by any authorized agent of federal, state, or city government; including but not limited to said rules as issued by the Director of the Convention Center, Show Director, or any other authorized entity while exhibitor is occupying space in said Convention Center.
19. Exhibit hours will be as defined by the Show Director with said notice being provided to exhibitors as to the hours of move-in, show operation, and move-out. Such hours shall be strictly observed by all participating exhibitors.
20. The show management will take all responsible precautions against loss by fire, water, storm, theft, strikes, and other damages, but the Show and/or the Convention Center does not guarantee or insure the exhibitor against loss by reason thereof. If insurance is desired it must be placed by exhibitor.
21. The Lessee/Exhibitor hereby agrees to indemnify and save harmless this Conference/Expo (also herein known as SHOW and EVENT) and the Convention Center, its officers, agents, and employees from and against any and all loss of or damage to property, including property of this Conference/Expo and/or Convention Center; or injuries to, or death of, any person or persons. The Lessee/Exhibitor shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Conference/Expo and its officers, agents, and employees, and Convention Center, from any claims, damages, suits, costs, expense in any way resulting from, or arising out of, directly or indirectly, Lessee/Exhibitor's operations in connection with its use or occupancy of any portion of the leased facilities or show, including acts of commission or omission of employees, representatives, or agents of the Lessee/Exhibitor. The Lessee/Exhibitor further agrees to carry for the full term of the contract, and at Lessee/Exhibitor's own expense, liability insurance against all claims or suites as set forth above; and agrees to bring no suit for any reason against the event's production firm or its staff and employees, or any vendor, association, sponsor, or other organization with which the Conference/Expo may have an alliance.
22. The show management reserves the right to stop or remove from the show any exhibitor or his representatives performing any act or practice which, in the opinion of management and/or Director of the Convention Center, is objectionable or detracts from the dignity of the event.
23. All matters not covered in these conditions are subject to the decision of the Show Director and/or Director of the Convention Center. No exception to this rule is tolerated or allowed.
24. Lessee/Exhibitor hereby provides license to this Conference/Expo to circulate and reprint images of exhibiting firm's logo and identifying trademarks as being a part of and exhibiting in the Expo for the purpose of promoting the entire event. Exhibiting firm agrees, in fact, to appear and exhibit on the proper dates and in the agreed numbered space so assigned during all official hours with a display of acceptable taste, and hereby recognizes that not to do so may defame and bring irreparable harm to this event's reputation.
25. This contract automatically renews and provides exhibitor similar space in our next regularly scheduled exposition provided exhibitor meets show standards and financial arrangements are made with a new contract executed within forty-five (45) days from the closing of this Expo.
26. Exhibitor expressly understands this Expo can make no warranty or guarantee as to how many people will, in fact, attend the event and that figures of "expected attendance" may exceed or fall short of actual numbers.
